College Newsletter

Each term in weeks 5 and 10, we publish our college newsletter. We know that families at Whites Hill State College are at the heart of a vibrant community, and staying connected is key to nurturing that sense of belonging. By subscribing to our college newsletter, you're not just receiving updates; you're joining a network that values communication, collaboration, and support. Whether it's important announcements, exciting events, or heart-warming stories from our school community, our newsletter aims to keep you informed and engaged in the journey of your child's education. Your subscription not only strengthens our bond as a school family but also ensures you never miss a moment of the wonderful experiences we share together.

Please join us in staying connected and informed by subscribing today!
