College Update | Week 9, Term 2, 2025

It's week 9 and winter has arrived in Brisbane. It is going to be a chilly week, and in preparation for this change in the weather we ask that all families have winter uniforms ready for students.

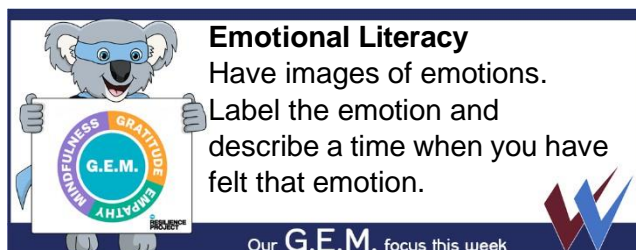

If winter uniform items need to be purchased our uniform shop is open from 8am to 1pm Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Uniform items can also be purchased using flexischools. If you require support with uniforms, please contact the relevant Head of School or year level Culture and Engagement Coordinator so that support arrangements can be put in place.

Synapses Ignite – Week 10 – Date Claimer

We welcome our community members to enjoy our annual arts showcase. This event will take place on Wednesday the 25th of June. It is a sensational evening that showcases the talent of our students and the spirit of Whites Hill. See you there!

R U OK? Convoy

We were delighted to host the R U OK? Conversation Convoy on Tuesday 10th of June. The R U OK? Conversation Convoy travels throughout Australia to help us understand the important role we all play in looking out for our friends, family and colleagues.

Students and staff connected with each other as we played games, had conversations and learnt the power of simply asking R U OK?

Remember - a conversation could change a life.
